JCC SUMMER BOOK CLUB

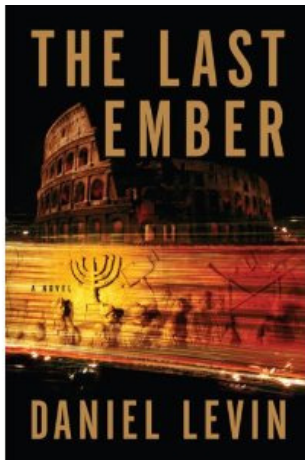

Before you pick your kids up, take some time for yourself and join a lively discussion on these acclaimed books!

“The Last Ember” by Daniel Levin

Tuesday, June 22, 2010; 2:30 p.m.

JCC Camp Shalom, Duncan Middle School, just north of PGA off Central Blvd., PBG

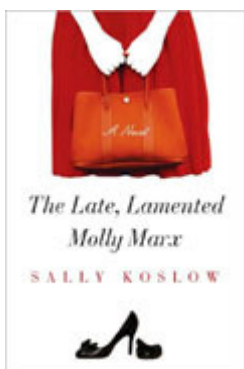

Paperback release - May 4, 2010

Da Vinci Code addicts will enjoy Levin's debut, a dense, complicated novel of religious suspense. Jonathan Marcus, classics scholar-turned-lawyer, becomes involved in an antiquities theft case his law firm is handling. A few minutes in the presence of a chunk of the ancient Roman Forum and a reunion with an old girlfriend from his student days, Dr. Emili Travia, and Jonathan is ready to cast off his three-piece suit and return to unearthing ancient subterranean mysteries. The prize this time is the 2,000-year-old Tabernacle menorah, eight feet of solid gold stolen from Herod's Temple in Jerusalem and hidden somewhere in Rome.

“The Late Lamented Molly Marx” by Sally Koslow

Tuesday, July 20, 2010; 2:30 p.m.

JCC Camp Shalom, Duncan Middle School, just north of PGA off Central Blvd., PBG

Paperback release - June 8, 2010

The circumstances of Molly Marx's death may be suspicious, but she hasn't lost her joie de vivre. Newly arrived in the here-after, aka the Duration, Molly, 35-years-old, is delighted to discover that she can still keep tabs on those she left behind: Annabel, her beloved four-year-old daughter; Lucy, her combustible twin sister; Kitty, her piece-of-work mother-in-law; Brie, her beautiful and steadfast best friend; and, of course, her husband, Barry.
